Chesterfield
CIGARETTES
LIGGETT & MYERS TOBACCO CO.

I LOVE the ladies.
BUT LIKE most men.
I OFTEN guess wrong.
ON WHAT will win.
A SMILE from them.
I ALWAYS say.
IT'S BETTER to laugh.
THAN EVER to worry.
SO ONCE, when.
THE DAM broke, and.
A FLOOD hit town.
I THOUGHT I'd just.
CHEER UP my wife.
AND SO I said.
"IF THE worst comes.
YOU CAN float down.
THE RIVER on.
THE FAMILY music-box.
AND I'LL accompany you.

ON THE piano."
WHICH WAS all wrong.
POOR HUMOR, she said.
WAS OUT of place.
IN TIME of danger.
SO KIPLING was right.
"A WOMAN is only.
A WOMAN, but a good cigar.
IS A smoke;" only.
HE SHOULD have made it.
MY CIGARETTES because.
YOU'RE BOUND to get.
A SMILE from them.
THEY ALWAYS "satisfy."

TAKE the silky, tender leaves of choicest Turkish; blend them with the best Domestic tobacco that money can buy—blend them in the exclusive,
can't-be-copied Chesterfield way—and you get a "smoke." Yes, and something more—you get a cigarette that honestly "satisfies."

A case was tried before Esq. U. S. Rose Saturday that might be called a "tit-for tat" legal fight. During the time the show was here a week or two ago, Marshal Lyles arrested Judge S. N. Smith and he was fined in the city court for profanity. Saturday Judge Smith sought to "even up" with the marshal and had him tried on the same charge. The city marshal did not testify or introduce any witnesses, but plead "not guilty" to the charge. Under the evidence Esq. Rose could do nothing except bind the marshal to court, which was done. The case will be thrashed out at the next term of circuit court.

Many persons do not realize what great quantities of goods are shipped by parcel post. Saturday there was four cartons of tobacco going by parcel post in the postoffice here. They were shipped from Louisville, Ky. to A. H. Hall, Linary. The total weight was over 180 pounds. The star route carrier to Linary had to leave them as he could not carry them with the other mail. He will likely have to provide a wheeled conveyance to get them to Linary.

R. B. Moore left last week for Epps, Alabama, to pass some days as the guest of Frank Russell aboard a boat he has recently acquired. Mr. Russell is rated as several times a millionaire, having made his money handling staves. For several years Mr. Moore was manager for his stove mills in this county. The ability shown by Mr. Moore, coupled with his clean business methods gave him a place of high esteem not only with Mr. Russell but with the people of the county with whom he has done business. No person who knows "Bob" Moore, as he is familiarly called by his friends, would ever charge him with a dishonest or unfair business transaction. Those who know him best admire him most.

Claud Hale, grandson of "Uncle" Martin Hale, and Robert Meadows, arrived from Norfolk, Va., last week in a car. Sunday they exceeded the speed limit on Main street and ran into the depot platform and seriously damaged their car. The fender was badly bent, steering rods and front axle twisted out of shape. When the car struck the platform the windshield was broken and a piece of the glass severely cut the left hand of Mr. Meadows. He was taken to the office of Dr. V. L. Lewis and the wound dressed. Indications point to a much larger crop in this county this year than ever before. At the same time many acres will be put in clover this season. J. L. Burnett, who handles the larger part of the field seeds sold here, stated to the Chronicle that he had sold 20 bags of clover seed and the season was just opening. Saturday he sold to two men at Linary—Sullivan Brothers—25 bushels of soy beans and several bushels of clover seed. Mr. Burnett stated that his seed sales promised to double this year any sales of previous years. For several years it has been very noticeable that our farmers are producing much larger crops each year than previously. With thousands of acres of level land uncultivated and for sale at prices from $10 up, it is no wonder that our people are making great progress in farming.

ATTENTION FARMERS!
